Welcome to our Spring Fair and Auction!

We are pleased to have you join us, and we pray you have an enjoyable time viewing the student projects, the exhibits, participating in the activities, and bidding on the auction items. We are grateful for all who have contributed auction items and to all who have come to place bids and join the competition.

We are always pleased when the CedarWood family comes together and stands as one to meet challenges. CedarWood exists to teach and train young people to know and serve God through a daily relationship with the Lord Jesus, building godly character, and developing the mind with excellent academics.

The proceeds of the auction will be used to meet expenses in order to continue the excellent program at a reasonable rate for all the families who desire Christian education for their children. God honors those who bless His children.

In Jesus,
